Course Title: Foundations of Human-Centered Leadership
Course Code: WSP 135
Instructor: Taylor Cone, Katherine Nobles

Course Summary:
In this two-day workshop, we’ll dive into what it means and what it takes to be a human-centered leader: creating environments for people to succeed, collaborating inclusively, communicating with clarity, considering the context of our work, challenging the status quo, and celebrating both successes and failures. By leading in a human-centered way, we build stronger, more resilient, more engaged, and more effective teams – and we feel more fulfilled along the way.

Grade Options and Requirements:
- No Grade Requested (NGR)
  - This is the default option. No work will be required; no credit will be received; no proof of attendance can be provided.
- Credit/No Credit (CR/NC)
  - Students must attend both class sessions.

*Please Note: If you require proof that you completed a Continuing Studies course for any reason (for example, employer reimbursement), you must choose the Credit/No Credit option. Courses taken for NGR will not appear on official transcripts or grade reports.
