Course Title: Beginning Chinese III
Course Code: CHN 03
Instructor: Zhou, Xiaofang

Course Requirements:

1. Class Attendance
   The design of this course is based on a proficiency-oriented classroom teaching approach. The goal is to achieve competence through step-by-step training for students. Therefore, it is very important that participants come to class every scheduled day and keep up with all assignments to reap the full benefits of the course. If you cannot attend a class, please review the materials on your own and also be prepared for the next class.

2. Preview and Review of All Class Materials
   Spending time on your own to review vocabulary and study the materials in the textbook is crucial. Listen to the audio recordings to familiarize yourself with the materials.

3. Quizzes
   In each quiz you will a) write the characters or pinyin of dictated vocabulary items, along with English equivalents; and b) listen to a short paragraph, and answer the questions in Chinese characters or pinyin according to what you hear (listening comprehension). If you miss a quiz, you can make it up only during the pre-class office hour the following week. The quizzes serve as a means to check how well we have learned the materials, so if you work attentively in class, practice hard with the audio materials, and study the lessons in the textbook, the quizzes should be easy for you. Make-up quizzes are given only for absences with legitimate reasons (e.g., sick leave).

4. Build Your Chinese Vocabulary: One Word per Week
   During every meeting time, please teach our class a new word you learned in your daily life. Please write the word in Hanzi or pinyin on the whiteboard before the class. In the first five minutes, you will take turns to demonstrate how to pronounce the words and teach us how to use the words. For example, shōu jī = cellphone.

- No Grade Requested (NGR)
  - This is the default option. No work will be required; no credit shall be received; no proof of attendance can be provided.

Have you ever been to mainland China, Taiwan, or Hong Kong? Introduce the city you visited to us.

Have you bought a souvenir you really like there? Bring your souvenir to our class next time, and tell us something about it: When, where did you buy it? How was that day? Did you bargain with the seller? How much did you buy it for? Why did you buy it? For whom? Do you think it’s a good deal? — etc.
